LADIES' COLUMN.

In entering upon the New Year, we do so realizing that nothing can give the intelligent or judicious buyers more satisfaction than to have us stick to our QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS SYSTEM. In has been the means of saving them money on every purchase made of us. While to us it has increased our trade from the day we adopted it.

We will have no shelves for shop worn goods. NEW GOODS, GOOD GOODS, STYLISH GOODS, and plenty of them, with a reasonable price fixed on them will be the order of this coming year's business. We want your trade and will have it, if goods and prices have anything to do with your buying. We propose to keep in touch with New York, Paris and London, at as near their prices as is consistent.

Each DEPARTMENT in the STORE will be found to contain a CHOICE and VARIED SELECTION of the NEWEST and most FASHIONABLE MATERIALS and GARMENTS of every description. We want you to get into the habit of expecting this, and inspecting our stock. It will save you time, trouble and money.

This week we have some fine INDIAN RUGS, some CARPETS and CURTAINS that you will make no mistake by buying.

Real Estate and Loans

The enlargement of the LOAN Market so as to cover the wants and necessities of the large number of honorable people who are not owners of unimproved Real Estate was one of the most necessary innovations of recent years. To many it has meant relief from pressing claims at the very time when most essential. When properly and honorably conducted this business is of equally great importance and value to the community as building and loan associations have proved themselves to be.

The Hawaiian Investment Co.

Makes a specialty of Negotiating and Procuring Loans for Borrowers who are unable to discount their Notes at the Banks and who do not care to obligate themselves to some friend or acquaintance by asking his endorsement to their Note. This Company will make Loans upon Household Furniture, Pianos, Organs, Horses, Mules, Wagons, Carriages and Personal Property without requiring the Property from the Borrower's possession and all business will be conducted on a STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL BASIS.

QUEER FOREIGN POLICY.

The New York "Sun" trenchantly
criticizes the Cleveland-Gresham Diplomacy.

The key to the Cleveland-Gresham foreign policy has yet to be discovered. A meddlesome disposition in matters where we have no business to interfere, a persistent indifference where American interests are really concerned; who can reconcile the crazy inconsistencies or find the guiding principle of action in the performances of the extraordinary two?

Blow hot, blow cold is the story; hot whenever the common sense of the situation requires restraint, and cold whenever the national welfare calls plainly for the generation of a little patriotic caloric.

China and Japan engage in a quarrel with which we have nothing to do. Cleveland and Gresham cannot keep their hands off, inasmuch as no American interest is to be served by interfering. They begin by notifying Japan distinctly that their joint sympathies are with China, and then when China gets the worst of the fight and British interests in Asia are plainly threatened they step in and volunteer to mediate, a proposition naturally and properly rejected by Japan with such politeness as circumstances permit.

Indifference—English diplomacy pushes cautiously but steadily for commanding position at the Atlantic entrance to the Nicaragua canal, the waterway of the future between the east and the west of the United States. Never in our history has a greater American interest been at stake, nor has there ever been a more obvious or more imperative demand for vigorous assertion of the Monroe doctrine. To all appearances the eyes of Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Gresham are fixed upon Armenia.

Interference—The old eastern question, around which European diplomacy has revolved for years, is acutely revived by reports of Turkish outrages in the neighborhood of Mount Ararat. Cleveland and Gresham cannot keep their hands off. They promptly join the European governments in an investigation of the crimes of the Kurds and the incompetence of Turkish administration, and send off an agent to Armenia. This sudden departure from American policy and precedent is so startling as to attract the attention even of our friends, the self-centered Frenchmen, and to inspire a Paris newspaper to ask what has become of our Monroe doctrine and to hail our government as "the seventh European power."

This is a skeleton sketch of the astounding foreign policy of Mr. Cleveland and Gresham up to date. Who can understand it? Who can explain it upon any theory that recognizes the entire sanity of the president and his secretary of state? Why is the policy of meddlesomeness active whenever we have nothing to gain by interfering?

Why is the policy of apathy manifest whenever we have everything to lose by indifference on the part of the Cleveland administration? What will come next on the fantastic program?

In These Chilly Mornings

the thoughts of the householder are directed towards fuel as a means of keeping warm. To get the right quality at the right price is the matter to be considered. There's lots and lots of wood for sale, but to get what is best for the money is the question.

We contend and we believe we are right in our judgment, that the wood we deliver to our patrons is the best ever offered for sale in Honolulu. Our algaroba is full growth and has more body to it than that grown anywhere on the Islands. Our wood choppers know a good thing when they see it, and in cutting they select only what they know to be good to use. We never deliver any except what is good. You take no chances whatever when you telephone us an order for wood. You get just as good as if you came to the ranch and selected it yourself.

THE WAIALAE RANCH.

struck my store during December. It was a strong, vigorous, full grown affair, and had no respect for other people's feelings. It would push its way in through the front door rummage among my choice goods, tear down, pick to pieces, growl at everything except the quality and price, buy a paper of Pins or a Silk Dress, go out and come back in a short time reinforced by neighboring cyclones. This nagging during the month has made me gray before my time, and standing in the middle of the store at 12 P. M. on December 31, 1894, I was glad to say "Pau." Feel somewhat better this week and have arrived at the conclusion that I will hold my Annual Clearance Sale. Now a clearance sale may mean nothing or everything. In my lease it means everything. I have a large assortment of goods on hand that I must get rid of before the return of next Australia. I must have shelf room and to get it I am prepared to make a sacrifice. Everything must be sold. Now each week I am going to offer something special, this time it is millinery. Nowhere in Honolulu can you buy Hats and all the attachments thereto for the next week as cheap as at Egan's. No other house in the city can sell these goods at 50c on the $1. We can't keep it up long, but will endeavor to satisfy everybody as long as the Hats and Feathers last. And remember that you get two dollars' worth for one of King Kalakaua's silver cartwheels.

Your Watch

Will be made to keep excellent time if left for three days with FARRER & Co., the Well known and Reliable Watch Makers. If satisfaction is not given your money will be refunded in full.
